COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, MARCH 2d, 1874.
Since our last issue the bark Hokulele has arrived with a full cargo from San Francisco consigned to Messrs. C. Brewer & Co. She will load for Victoria Y. T.

The American bark Coyote arrived on the 2d from Philadelphia with 300 tons of coal for the American Government. After giving the required port duty will probably go to San Francisco to load for Europe.

Back to H. H. will load for Bremen, to sail early in April, we presume.

The American whaling bark Mount Washington has arrived off the port, the first of the spring fleet. Several whalers are reported here, which will add to the arrival of the American whaling fleet, as given on our fourth page. It is from a circular issued by the house of Messrs. L. H. Bartlett & Sons of New Bedford. These latter are prospects of any new fleet being sent out this year, and after the seals now in service are withdrawn, the whale fishery in these waters will be suspended by our New Bedford whalers. Whatever vessels are fitted will be from this port and San Francisco.

Foreign Commercial Items.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 2d.—The King-Sailor, from Baker's and Son, has arrived.

The budget of the British Empire for 1874 estimates the revenue at $10,821,000,000, and the expenditure at $10,821,000,000, leaving a surplus of $10,000,000.

The demand for sugar in the United States has largely increased, having since the winter increased five per cent., in 1864.

The California newspapers in favor of import duties on tropical and semi-tropical fruits, whose paper was presented to Congress last week, may rest assured that the Senate intended to do nothing. Their temporary suspension goes out of a general desire in suspending the act of 1872.

The Pioneer, of San Francisco, says the value of the export of foreign goods to the United States in 1873 was about $100,000,000, and her cargo probably $100,000 more.

The annual importation of preserved fish into the United States is about six million pounds, and the consumption prior or about seven miles per pound, amounting in round figures to $400,000.

The season's English crop is estimated at a little over half that of last year, with a greater diversity of quality than has been seen for many seasons. It is believed that the import of hops from the continent will not affect the average for some years past, while America will require a considerable amount of the English growth to supply the deficiency in this year's crop.
